KHA-PAC contributes to candidates who have demonstrated a commitment to hospital issues. By supporting those candidates who support our issues, we are working to ensure that critical health care votes in the Kansas Legislature and Congress are cast by individuals who understand our needs.

- 100 percent of your contribution goes directly to political candidates. No portion is used for KHA staff salaries, overhead or expenses associated with lobbying activities.
- KHA determines which candidates to support, and for what amount, using guidelines established by the KHA-PAC Steering Committee.
- Your contribution goes directly to political candidates at the state level. Additionally, unless otherwise designated, a portion supports federal candidates through the AHAPAC to strengthen our voice in Washington, D.C.
- All contributions are voluntary and have no impact on your job status, performance review, compensation or employment. Any amount given or the decision not to give will not advantage or disadvantage you.
- State and federal laws require us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 in a calendar year.

Supporting those who care about Kansas hospitals and the patients they serve.
strengthening our collective voice. You can make a difference by participating in the political process. Now is not the time to sit on the sidelines while trial lawyers, insurers and other groups are at the table discussing the future of health care in Kansas. To have an impact on these decisions, it is essential that hospitals are a part of the political process.

KHA-PAC supports the efforts of the Kansas Hospital Association to advocate on behalf of Kansas hospitals by participating in the political process. KHA-PAC provides the Association, KHA-PAC also participates in the federal process. An agreement with the American Hospital Association, KHA-PAC also participates in the federal process. AHAPAC is the political action committee established to support federal candidates. Twenty-five percent of the regular contributions received and 50 percent of contributions above $250 are shared with AHAPAC, unless the contributor designates otherwise. Most of those shared funds are returned as contributions to KHA-supported candidates for federal office.

KHA-PAC BENEFITS
Without financial assistance from supporters, few candidates can afford the cost of a campaign. Because of this, it is essential that hospitals are a part of the political process.

- KHA-PAC allows KHA members to positively impact the election of political candidates who recognize and support health care's important role in the state.
- KHA-PAC provides the Association and its members with an enhanced presence at the state level and on Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C.
- KHA-PAC improves the ability of KHA and its members to develop and maintain working relationships with legislators.
- A strong KHA-PAC assures you and other members of KHA have a voice before public policy makers.

Every year, at the state and federal level, individuals will debate the future course of health care delivery and expenditures. Supporting KHA-PAC is one way you can be sure that Kansas hospitals and health care organizations have a meaningful voice in the outcome of these critical decisions.
