

KHHRA Professional of the Year Award

Overview

The KHHRA Professional of the Year Award has been established by the Kansas Hospital Human Resource Association. This award recognizes HR professionals who provide an exemplary contribution and commitment to either their organization or to KHHRA.

Purpose

This award provides KHHRA the opportunity to recognize HR professionals for the hard work and dedication that they provide every day to their organization and/or to KHHRA.

Criteria

Nominees must be an active member of KHHRA and be nominated by their Hospital or a fellow KHHRA member.

Process

KHA will notify all Hospitals (Administrators and HR Professionals) of this award in May of each year. Hospitals may nominate a staff member if they see fit. The KHHRA Award Committee (which will consist of the immediate past award winner & 2 other KHHRA Board Members) will review all nominations. The Award Committee may recommend to the President multiple or no awards be given.

To Nominate a member of KHHRA, please complete the attached form. The form should be returned to Vicky Nelson at the Kansas Hospital Association by mail, fax (785-233-6955) or email (vnelson@kha-net.org) by June 15.

Presentation and Recognition

Award(s) will be presented at the KHHRA Meeting during the KHA Convention.

Deadline

All nominations must be postmarked by June 15th.
