The Heartland Telehealth Resource Center Webinar Series First Tuesday of Each Month Broadcast via Zoom Webconferencing

The time is right for telehealth! Significant advances in technology have greatly increased the capacity and application of telehealth. With the recent signing of the Kansas Telemedicine Act, reimbursement will expand and provide financial viability of new and existing telemedicine programs. The Heartland Telehealth Resource Center has designed a series of webinars to provide healthcare organizations with information on establishing or expanding telehealth programs. Speakers for the hour-long sessions are experienced telehealth professionals and will share their creative and innovative approaches to telehealth.

Target Audience: Health care providers and professionals, organization leadership, information technology experts and other individuals interested in telehealth
