A vigorous health care system is essential not only for the health and welfare of community residents, but also to enhance economic opportunities. Hospitals and the health-related sector are some of the fastest growing in the economy. Evidence shows that quality health care improves business productivity, aids in the recruitment and retention of businesses, and attracts and retains retirees.

The Kansas Hospital Association releases statewide economic impact reports annually and county economic impact reports every other year. These reports focus on Kansas hospitals and the health care sector in Kansas.

Join KHA and researchers from the Institute for Policy & Social Research at the University of Kansas, from noon to 1:00 p.m. on July 30, to walk through the reports and the resources available to KHA members.

Attendees also will learn about the data on jobs, labor income and sales tax revenue, including direct effects and multiplier effects. Don't miss this opportunity to learn how to use this data to share how your hospital influences local economic development and contributions to the Kansas economy.
