2026 Advocacy Briefing: Know Before You Go

Jan. 6, 2026

9:30 - 10:30 a.m.

Click Here to Register

The Kansas Hospital Association invites you to participate in the 2026 Advocacy Day Briefing, a virtual briefing designed to prepare hospital leaders and advocates for KHA Advocacy Day in Topeka that will occur on Jan. 22. This session will provide essential background, updates and practical guidance to help you make the most of your time at the Statehouse during the 2026 Legislative Session.

What will be covered during this briefing:

- The purpose and goals of KHA Advocacy Day
- Key issues expected to be discussed during the 2026 Legislative Session
- How to effectively communicate hospital priorities with policymakers
- Logistics and what to expect on Advocacy Day, including schedules and Capitol protocols
- Tools and resources available to support your advocacy efforts, including talking points and handouts

This is a valuable opportunity to ensure you feel informed, confident and prepared to engage with legislators on the issues impacting Kansas hospitals and the communities they serve. Advocacy Day is most effective when hospital leaders are prepared and aligned. Advocacy is a team effort, and your participation matters.

This briefing will help you:

- Understand current policy dynamics
- Clarify your hospital's advocacy priorities
- Maximize meaningful conversations with legislators
- Represent your organization and patients effectively
