AT THE CROSSROADS OF CRISIS: THE INTERSECTION OF SUBSTANCE USE DISORDER AND INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE

PRESENTED BY DANIELLE LYNCH

BY THE END OF THE PRESENTATION, PARTICIPANTS WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Identify how an abusive partner may utilize substances as a method to gain coercive control
- Understand the impact that abuse and trauma can have on substance use addiction.
- Identify three prevention strategies that empower survivors to help prevent substance misuse, increase safety, and aid in recovery efforts.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Continuing education credit will be offered to physicians, nurses, behavioral health professionals and social workers at no cost.

Thanks to the Kansas Department of Health and Environment and the OD2A grant for providing funding to make it possible to provide continuing education to participants.
